

Paweł Franciszek Kukołowicz

Born in 1957 in Łódź, Poland. Graduated from Warsaw University, Faculty of Physics, specialized in medical physics in 1981. From 1980 till 1997 medical physicists at Medical Physics Department, Cancer Center-Institute of Oncology in Warsaw. From 1997 till 2010 head of Medical Physics Department in Holycross Cancer Center in Kielce. From 2010 back at Cancer Center-Institute of Oncology in Warsaw. From 2012 head of the Department. In 1997 PhD at the Faculty of Physics at Warsaw University. From 2007 Associate Professor. President of Polish Society of Medical Physics (2012 – 2014 and from 2014 till now). From 2006 specialist in medical physics according to the Polish law (expert in medical physics). Lecturer at the Jan Kochanowski University in Kielce (2009 – 2011), at Warsaw University (2012 – 2017), at European School of Medical Physics, Archamps (2012 – 2014), and also at the ICTP in Trieste. Author of more than 30 articles published in peer-reviewed journals. The co-author of several Polish recommendations in radiotherapy. Father of 4 children and grandfather of 8 grandchildren. Marathon runner.